4. ANNOUNCEMENTS:

The members were given copies of the following flyers: Halloween Spooktacular on October 25th and 26th and the Arts & Crafts Festival on November 9th along with a copy of the newspaper article on the Teen Game Day event.

5. PUBLIC COMMENT:

There were no members from the public present.

6. OLD BUSINESS:

a. Teen Game Day wrap-up:

Mrs. Brown thanked everyone for working and said that the families that came out to the event had a good time. She did not know why there was a low turnout but felt that they could try again in the spring. Mrs. Armon said everyone on the committee did their part by showing up and working. She told them not to feel bad. The members said everyone had fun despite the low numbers.

Miss Dawson felt that maybe the game day should be open to all ages as the younger ones seem to be the ones attending the game days. She suggested that maybe it should be called a "youth center" instead of a "teen center" and then gear different events to different age groups and keep the dances for teens.

7. NEW BUSINESS:

A. Teen dance:

The members were given 2 versions of the Teen Fall Dance flyers – one done in "fall" colors and the other in neon colors. They all agreed that the neon colored flyer was more of an eye catcher. It was noticed that the age group was left off the neon colored flyer as well as the fact that there is no charge for attending this dance. Mrs. Brown and Mr. Moore advised that the information would be relayed to the PIO person in charge of the flyer. Mr. Moore advised that the location would be Harris Saxon Community Center.

The members briefly discussed their own dress code and what would be required of them on the night of the event as well as what food items would be served. They were told that there would not be any cooking but that the items to be served would include popcorn, snacks and sodas.

The members asked Mrs. Brown to have the DJ send a list of the types of music he planned to play, other than the music selections they had chosen. Their attention was directed to the previous set of minutes, page 2 where the music was discussed and Mrs. Brown advised that they could add more selections instead of leaving the choices up to the DJ as he is willing to do whatever this sub-committee wanted.

There was no further discussion on the teen dance.
